SHIFTA by Elisava.

SHIFTA is the Online School for Digital Creators launched in 2018 by ELISAVA, the Barcelona University School of Design and Engineering, with the aim of training professionals in creative disciplines through learning that combines conceptualisation and development. With a methodology 100% online, our studies are based on strategic thinking, idea production and strategic thinking, the production of ideas and results.

Our mission is to offer a transversal and holistic view of creative processes. That's why our team of teachers, experts in their disciplines, is at your disposal to guide you in different projects and provide you with a complete creative perspective. At SHIFTA, we also offer you new skills, knowledge and a wide network of contacts that will help you boost your career as a digital creator.

Are you one of them?

By Elisava

SHIFTA is supported by Elisava, the Barcelona University School of Design and Engineering. Thanks to Elisava's more than 50 years of experience, as well as its recognised prestige not only in Spain but also globally, and its involvement in 2021 as Faculty of Design and Engineering of the Central University of Catalonia (UVic-UCC).
